

Teachers Institute In Session Here

The Montgomery County Teacher's Institute convened Monday, June 28th at the Court House at 8 a. m. Monday was the business day for teachers, getting supplies, etc., for their various schools. Miss Ora L. Adams, County Superintendent of Mercer county, is instructor in charge. Mrs. Mary Ricketts Mayes, the efficient principal of the Camargo Consolidated School, will act as chairman for the week. A full attendance of teachers is present, ready and willing to do their part in making the institute a pleasant and profitable one.

The colored institute is also in session in another room at the Court House with Mrs. Cathryn Coons Gatewood, who is one of the leading colored educators of the county, in charge.

State Superintendent George Colvin has promised to spend Wednesday with the teachers.

The public is cordially invited to attend the institute and especially hear Mr. Colvin explain the new school laws Wednesday afternoon. The State Superintendent demands that the county superintendents revoke certificates of all teachers who fail to attend the full session of the institute. We feel sure no certificate will be revoked in Montgomery county for the teachers are all in earnest and are in their places at each session.

"Fair-Way" Grocery To Open Here

E. V. Browning, one of this city's most progressive business men, has sold his stock of groceries to the "Fair-Way" Grocery Store, a stock company composed of himself, Clem L. Dean and other local men, who will operate a chain of stores in this section, the first of which will be opened in Mt. Sterling. The "Fair-Way" plan is similar to the Piggly-Wiggly, and this will be the first Self-Service grocery ever operated here. Mr. Browning's grocery will close Saturday night, and the new store will open for business on Saturday, July 10th. Everything will be sold at but a slight advance above cost, and only the best grades of staple and fancy groceries, and cured meats will be handled. It is predicted that the "Fair-Way" Store will claim a large share of the grocery business in this city and county as both Mr. Browning and Mr. Dean are very popular and splendid business men.

Redpath Chautauqua Begins Thursday

Arrangements for the opening of the Mt. Sterling Seven-Day Chautauqua on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the chautauqua tent on the school grounds are almost complete. The program this year is replete with timely lectures and music of an enjoyable character. There will be lectures on such vital themes as "Modern Unrest," "The Place of the Farm in Modern Life," and "Facing the Task." A complete production of the famous Gilbert & Sullivan light opera "Pinafore," a sparkling comedy success "Nothing But the Truth"; Louise Stallings, Lyric Mezzo, soprano; New York opera singers and Grobecker's Swiss Singers and Yodlers, are some of the other notable attractions.

The Sibyl Sammis Singers will be the attraction on Thursday afternoon. They are a vocal quartet emanating from the studios of Sibyl Sammis McDermid, of Chicago. They present a program of ensemble, quartets, trios, duets, as well as solo appearances. Costumed sketches are a pleasing feature. On Thursday night beginning at 8 o'clock the Sibyl Sammis Singers will give a thirty minute prelude after which Dr. H. E. Rompel will give his great lecture, "Facing the Task." Permanent patriotism, community co-operation and industrial responsibility are some of the great topics presented in this lecture. "Dad" Rompel is the name given to Dr. Rompel by the thousands of sailors who learned to know him at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station, where he has been civilian pastor since 1917. As a lecturer he presents themes of importance.

The Chautauqua here will be in charge of R. E. Bendell.

Robert L. Stewart In Auto Accident

Robert L. Stewart, well known real estate dealer and prominent farmer, was badly injured in an automobile accident which occurred on North Maysville street in this city Sunday. Mr. Stewart was teaching his daughter to drive the car, and the young woman lost control of the machine which ran into a telephone pole, throwing Mr. Stewart through the wind shield and bruising and cutting him about the face and body. He was removed to his home where medical attention was given and the injured man is resting well today. Miss Stewart was only slightly hurt.

Mrs. Asa Kidd Dies in Louisville Hospital

Mrs. Asa Kidd, of Winchester, died at the St. Joseph Hospital in Louisville this morning following an operation last Thursday. The operation was at first thought to be successful, but on Saturday night Mrs. Kidd began to grow worse and her father, Rufus Hadden, of this city, and other relatives were summoned to her bedside. She was a life-long member of the Christian church and a lovely Christian woman, possessing a faculty for making friends which had endeared her to all with whom she came in contact. Besides her father and husband, she is survived by three children, Harold, Olivia, and Clarence LeBus. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. H. B. Turner, of this city, and six brothers, Harry, of this county, and Charley, Ollie, Clarence, Kenney and Robert. She was widely known and related here where the news of the death of this noble woman will be received with much sorrow. The funeral arrangements have not as yet been made but will likely be held in Winchester Thursday.

Democrats Meet at San Francisco

The Democratic National Convention was called to order in San Francisco Monday. Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the National Committee, addressed the convention, and praised resident Wilson and the achievements of the administration. He presented the President's views to the convention and showed conclusively that in the President's mind the League of Nations is the paramount issue. Later a painting of the President was unveiled and the convention roared its tribute to Woodrow Wilson. McAdoo seems to have the best chance to land the nomination, and it is stated that he is gaining steadily in spite of the fact that he has announced he would not allow his name to go before the convention as a candidate. However, the selection of a leader will not come before the convention until after a platform has been written and adopted, which will take several days. The administration forces appear to be in complete control of the convention and it seems certain the wishes of President Wilson will be carried out.

Aids to Grace and Beauty

By Priscilla Dean

PRISCILLA DEAN

Did you ever know that your mental state has a great deal to do with your facial beauty?"

"You didn't? Well then I am going to tell you something I know to be absolute true."

Have you ever noticed a woman whom everyone calls a cat? The woman who is always making unkind and hateful remarks about everybody. Nothing pleases her. She roasts her best friend the minute she is out of sight of her. She not even stops at gossip, but she slanders wickedly.

No one is safe from the lash of her tongue. Do you think for a minute that such a woman is pretty?"

She may have regular features, her nose perfect, her mouth like a rose bud, but she repulses you. You can see nothing that is fine and that is beautiful, try hard as you may.

The reason is, this woman reflects her mental self and no matter how beautiful her body may be, the mental conquers the physical, and we see only her mind. Her black ugly thoughts.

Look closely. You will notice that the mouth has a hardline. The eyes, that at first we thought pretty are narrow as she thinks and schemes. No, this woman is not beautiful and until her mind has cleared and her thoughts purified, she never will be.

Take, on the other hand, the girl whom we pass by, at first as plain.

As we listen to her and are thrown constantly in her company she appeals to us. She draws us closer by her kindness of speech and action. She is always ready and willing to help. You tell her your pet grievance and she listens, just as if she never had any trouble of her own.

When you have finished she is most sympathetic and suggest some way in which you may be relieved.

Her nose isn't perfect. It's a bit too short. Her mouth is too large and her eyes too small. Her hair is that straw color that never was and never will be pretty, but you do not notice this. In fact, when it is called to your attention that she is not a Lillian Russell you are much surprised. You had always thought her beautiful, because she had reflected her MENTAL state, which was a very beautiful thing.

And so it goes. I know of another instance, this time, a man's case.

This young fellow was very tall and handsome. He came from a fine family and had all the advantages that money could buy. When the war came, through his pull and his money he secured a "safe" position. After the war was over he returned home, and at first all of the girls were crazy about him.

He gloried in it. Time and time again he would tell them stories of his adventures in France. Hearing him talk you derived the impression that it was quite unnecessary to have sent any other men over there. He could have won the war, all alone.

Finally they all became sick of his bragging and his arrogant manners. He forgot that he was no longer an army captain and ordered everyone about him in the same tone that he had adopted to the fellows beneath him.

Needless to say, he never won any

I had a girl that had chronic bronchitis and I never found anything that would give her relief until I began giving her Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and it gave her more real help than all other medicines put together. I have taken 'Golden Medical Discovery' for stomach trouble and it was excellent for this ailment; it purifies one's blood and seems to act upon, and build up one's whole system in a good, healthy state. 'Golden Medical Discovery' is a splendid family medicine and I take pleasure in recommending it."—Mrs. J. A. BEAN, 1500 Highland Avenue.

Few folks or families now living have not at sometime or other used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the stomach, liver or blood. Over twenty-four million bottles of this tonic and blood remedy have been sold by druggists in this country.

Oh, my he was homely. His mouth was so big. His nose so long he was slightly under medium height and he was very quiet, never butted in or offer his opinion, until asked. Then when he did talk, oh, girls, he was just lovely. You couldn't help but like him.

His manners were almost courtly, and you know how women like that stuff. He bowed and smiled a smile that lit up his whole face. He was an instantaneous hit. Poor Mr. Captain went to the rear.

INDICTS OWN PARTY'S RECORD

It would be difficult to imagine a more seathing indictment of the present Republican-controlled Congress than that uttered by one of its own leaders, Representative James R. Mann, of Illinois, former Republican floor leader in the House. Speaking on the floor of the House recently, Mr. Mann said:

"Congress has been in almost continuous session for almost a year. The Republican side has a reasonably large majority. If we say to the country, as we will say if this rule passes, that the Republican majority in a year's time has been unable to bring in legislation and perfect it where it is subject to amendment, it acknowledges its impotency and its incapacity. It will be called to the attention of your constituents on every stump that the Republican party has not enacted much reconstructive legislation, and it will be told in addition that the Republican majority of the House was afraid to enact legislation under the ordinary rules and was incapacitated from following the ordinary practice."

Mr. Mann was denouncing the rule prohibiting amendments to and limiting debate on the bonus bill, a bill intended to raise a billion and a half dollars. The "steering committee" had ordered the bill O. K'd by it to be passed, or no bill at all, and both Democrats and Republicans denounced the rule because it forbade them the opportunity of even offering amendments to remove objectionable taxation features. Minority members desired to amend the bill to raise the bonus money by taxing war profits, but the "steering committee" had ordered the tax passed to the consumer.

The rule having been adopted, we have Mr. Mann's word for it that the Republican party "acknowledges its impotency and incapacity."

A man with a Bad Record should emulate the Tarbaby: "Lay low an' say nuffin'."

U-Boat Prisoner

Officer of Ill-Fated U. S. S. Neptune Gives Story of Remarkable Adventure and Discovery

Richard Cannon, Chief Petty Officer of the U. S. S. Neptune, whose dramatic capture at sea by a German U-Boat and subsequent experiences abroad the submarine and in a German prison hospital, thrilled the entire country, is still another world war hero to test the remarkable reconstructive powers of Tanlac and give it his strong endorsement. Mr. Cannon's adventures were so harrowing that his constitution was completely shattered but after months of suffering he has now regained the wonderful health that enabled him to pull through his adventures alive and is to-day the same strapping two hundred pound fighter that embarked on the ill-fated collier. But let him tell his own story:

"When the Neptune was torpedoed off the Irish coast," said Mr. Cannon, who now lives at 707 East LaFayette, Tampa, Fla., "I had my right leg and five ribs broken by the explosion, and when I came to my senses I found myself on board a submarine bound for Germany. I was kept in a German prison hospital for five months, and you can imagine what I must have suffered when I tell you that I fell off in weight from two hundred and twenty-five to a hundred and thirty-one pounds. When I was repatriated and finally got my discharge in February, 1919, I was little better than a living skeleton. I had no appetite and my digestive system was so upset that what little I did eat always gave me severe pains in the pit of my stomach. Before I joined the service I never knew what nerves were, but after what I went through my nerves were so shattered that I couldn't keep still a minute, and the slightest thing upset me. For six months I continued in this condition, unable to pick up strength, and so weak that any attempt at work tired me out completely. I began to think that I should never be a well and strong man again.

"But the way Tanlac overcame my troubles and built me up was nothing short of marvelous. It gave me such an appetite that I wanted to eat all the while, and I sure did make up for lost time. I had no more bother with indigestion and from then on I picked up strength and put on weight until now I tip the beam at two hundred and four pounds and am as well and strong as I ever was before I joined the service. My nerves are as steady as a die and I'm like my old self again. Tanlac is certainly a grand medicine and I think every suffering person ought to try it."

Tanlac is sold in Mt. Sterling by Land & Priest.

Brunswick Principles In Fine Tire Making

The reason you are interested in the name on your tire is that it identifies the maker. By knowing the maker you can judge his ideals of manufacture.

The only secret of a super-tire lies in the principles of the maker. His standards decide the quality. For there are no secrets in the tire industry.

What you get depends on what is behind the name on your tire. Brunswick, as you know, means a very old concern, jealous of its good name. Since 1845 the House of Brunswick has been famous the world over for the quality of its products.

The Brunswick Tire is all that you expect—and more. Your first one will be a revelation. You'll agree that you've never known a better. And you'll tell your friends. So spreads the news among motorists. The Brunswick is the most welcome tire that ever came to market.

Dalton ADDING-CALCULATING MACHINE

Every Office Employee can and will use a 10-Key Dalton

Time is the most precious commodity of any office. Figuring machines should be purchased that can and will be used by every one.

And unless a machine invites use thru its simplicity, it will not be used. In the branch offices of the biggest corporations, like Goodyear, 10-Key Daltons are being installed because clerk after clerk uses it during the day.

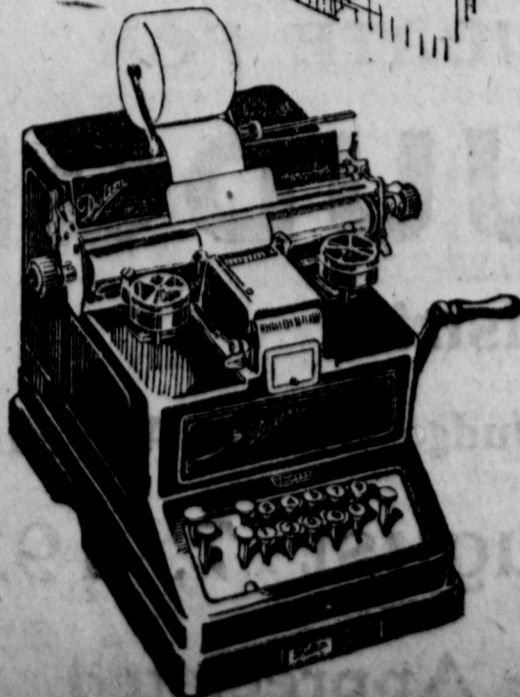

The Dalton invites use. Executives use it who would ordinarily hesitate to approach a figuring machine. Employees like it because it relieves them of mental effort, such as column selection.

It is a better investment for any office because it is simpler in construction and operation, and because it combines a mechanical calculating brain with an adding and listing brain. Fastest adding-multiplying machine made. Make a test.

Phone for Demonstration

The demand for Daltons today exceeds the supply although we have doubled and tripled our production. This is simply the result of the business world knowing the Dalton, better, understanding its greater efficiency and broader figuring service.

ANNOUNCEMENT

We are authorized to announce

JOHN G. WINN, OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY, as a candidate for the office of

Circuit Judge of the Twenty-first District of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Democratic voters at the primary election to be held on August 7, 1920.

ASKS FOR THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION

While we have known for sometime that Hon. John G. Winn, of this county, was a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Circuit Court Judge of the district composed of the counties of Rowan, Bath, Menefee and Montgomery, his official announcement as such makes its first appearance in this issue of The Advocate. It would be folly for us to introduce Mr. Winn to the people whom he desires to serve. That he was born, reared and has spent the greater part of his life in the county of Montgomery you, the voters, know as well as we do, the high character of this splendid gentleman. You also know of his qualifications to fill the office to which he aspires. With a resourceful mind, educated and trained in one of the very best colleges in the South, and this course finished he was prepared for the study of law, his chosen profession, and in a famous law college he also became a graduate, and in both colleges attained the highest degree. He is therefore eminently fitted to make a judge of this court of whom we would have reason to be justly proud. We believe this district deserves the best qualified man for this place and as such we ask the voters of the district to seriously consider Mr. Winn's merits. Relative to Mr. Winn as an upright, moral citizen, a man who practices what he preaches we will have more to say. As a lawyer and speaker Mr. Winn is in a class with the best.

ASKS FOR YOUR VOTES

In an advertisement in this issue Judge Henry R. Prewitt requests the suffrage of the voters of this judicial district that he may fill the short term caused by the death of Judge William A. Young. Judge Prewitt was appointed by Gov. Black to fill the place of Circuit Judge in this district until an election could be held under the law. Judge Prewitt is serving as Circuit Judge now and the people have had an opportunity to judge for themselves of his fitness for the position. He is a native of this county and a member of one of the best known and most prominent families of this section. He has been prominent in politics and as a reward for faithfulness was given, under the Beckham administration, the position of Insurance Commissioner, and held this place for a full term. Judge Prewitt will be grateful to the voters for their support, and we ask the voters of the district to consider well his claims upon them.

WHO WILL IT BE?

The representatives of the Democratic party at this moment are canvassing leading availables, looking them over as to fitness and speed. It is said McAdoo has yielded to courtship and is now willing to accept the Democratic nomination. There will not be a third party for all Democrats will willingly abide the decision of the messengers chosen to select a candidate for the Presidency of the United States. It may be McAdoo on the first ballot.

Bourbon County Citizens Determined

At a meeting held Saturday by Road Commissioners Catesby Spears and John T. Collins, of Bourbon county, farmers and business men subscribed the sum of $60,000 to the first issue of road and bridge bonds. The county recently voted a bond issue of $500,000 for the purpose of road and bridge construction. Before offering the first installment of $100,000 for sale, a friendly suit was brought in the circuit court and the case taken to the Court of Appeals where the validity of the bond issue was affirmed. Owing to the condition of the money market, commissioner John T. Collins who was appointed to sell the bonds was informed that there was no market whereupon Bourbon county citizens decided to buy the bonds at par and accrued interest that work on the roads be continued. The bonds bear five per cent interest, payable semi-annually and are free of city, state and government taxes.

"PRESS DEM QUESTIONS"

A colored Methodist presiding elder was conducting an "experience meeting" at a church in the South.

A weighty negress arose and bore witness to the preciousness of her religion as light-bringer and comfort-giver.

"That's good, sister!" commented the leader. "But now about the practical side. Does your religion make you strive to prepare your husband a good dinner?" "Does it make you look after him in every way?"

Just then the speaker felt a yank at his coat tails by the local colored preacher, who whispered ardently: "Press dem questions, doctor; press dem questions. Dat's my wife!"

WHAT PEOPLE MEAN BY "CHRISTIANS"

What does the word Christian mean to the average man? An English physician has for twenty years heard his hospital patients—generally poor and uneducated people—use the word. Few of them, he says in a letter to the Church Times (London, England), could make out even a presentable definition of the word. Yet, "they all know more or less what they mean by it. It is shockingly inactive; but life would take to itself fresh hues of added loveliness if an appreciable number of us could but realize the conception which it endeavors to define." In the course of his reflections on the popular use of the word, this Christian doctor has come to these conclusions:

"1. Perhaps the most interesting point of all, 'Christian' used as an adjective and applied to acts, standards, intentions, etc., has an almost exclusively ethical meaning. Of doctrinal significance there is hardly a trace. 'I call that a truly Christian work' means a kindly, probably compassionate, possibly a self-denying undertaking. Sometimes a large degree of tolerable is implied. 'Ah! now that's the Christian way of looking at it,' and certainly intended to convey appreciation of charitable allowance made for an admitted failing. Once I heard it applied to an animal. 'I often says to my husband he's as good a Christian as what I am' was a tribute paid to an ungainly bull terrier of very doubtful lineage, on account of the interest he displayed in the welfare of the younger children.

"2. The case is rather different with such a phrase as 'a Christian man.' Here some recognition of a doctrinal standard is clearly disclosed. I do not think that it would be considered suitable as an epithet describing the character of a professional atheist or agnostic, however admirable his life and conservatism were known to be. Not, I think, necessarily conversion, and certainly not baptism, but rather adherence to some definitely Christian body appears to be a sine qua non. But the ethical aspect has by no means disappeared. If the actions are held not to correspond with declared opinions, the title to the appellation 'Christian' will be openly disputed. 'And he calls himself a Christian!' This, delivered with withering emphasis, was the fitting conclusion to an asperser on the rapacity of a landlord who (although a deacon), had tried to exact regular payments of rent."

A smart wife won't let her husband get up and give one of the children a drink after he goes to bed because, if she does, he will go around all the next day complaining that he was up all night, and never got a wink of sleep.

AMERICAN LEGION HOLDS

CONVENTION IN SEPTEMBER

September 3rd and 4th has been designated by the State Executive Committee of the American Legion of Kentucky as the time for the second annual State Convention of the ex-service men and women of the Great War.

Announcement is made from State headquarters that representation will be determined by the number of members. Each post will have one representative and one alternate and one additional representative for each one hundred members whose State and National dues have been paid. There are one hundred and thirty-two local posts in the State. Each post will send its delegation with instructions as to the sentiment prevailing among the Legionnaires of its vicinity regarding the big issues now facing the Legion and all ex-service men. Local posts are urged to see that their officers make returns for all new members in order that the post may secure its proper representation at the convention.

All ex-service men and women are urged to realize the importance of co-operating with the Legionnaires of their community in swelling local post membership; in keeping foremost the ideals and principles of the greatest organization of veterans in the history of the United States; and in seeing that the voice and sentiments of the ex-service men and women of the county and community are properly recorded at the next State convention. If you have a kick, join the Legion and let it be known in the right sort of way. If you have an idea that you think the Legion ought to do something which, up to this time, has been overlooked, join the Legion and get up and "speak out in the meeting."

A great civilian non-military non-partisan organization welcomes your advice and co-operation and urges that you do your full duty today, even as you did it during the war. No ex-service man holding an honorable discharge can afford to let it be known in later years that he stood aside and failed to join his "buddies" in the work of reconstruction.

Meeting of State officers, committeemen and delegates to represent the Department of Kentucky at the National convention to be held in Cleveland, September 27th, will be one of the orders of business at the State convention. The Legion attitude toward adjusted compensation, popularly termed a bonus, will also be one of the live topics before the convention. Alien propaganda and activities, punishment of draft dodgers and slackers and other matters of vital interest to all ex-service men and women will be discussed and delegates to the Cleveland convention will be given their instructions according to the sentiment of the ex-service men and women of Kentucky as expressed by their delegates on the floor of the State convention.

All ex-service men and women, regardless of whether they served in France or in this country, or whether they had the title of Major General or buck private in the rear rank, are eligible to membership and all have an equal voice and vote in determining the policies of the Legion.

Bathing regulations in New York prevent the girls from wearing one-piece bathing suits—Don't they ever want to see them dressed up?

An inherent modesty coupled with a keen desire to learn, prompts me to ask some of the fair sex if they can tell me how a young lady can get in and out of a one-piece bathing suit.

The man that stole $500,000 worth of jewels from Caruso must have wanted to buy his wife a pair of silk hose.

Jim Allen, of the Cynthiana Democrat, has raised his paper one cent a week—No doubt caused by the raise in candy and flowers.

It was the editor of the West Virginia Review, that had to publish this correction, which he did. Wouldn't this make you mad? "It is not often that this paper is called on to apologize or make corrections of articles appearing in our columns, as we usually try and verify the news given us in most instances. However, we desire to apologize to Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wilburn for an article appearing in last week's issue, stating that a baby boy had come to bless their home. It developed that the story was given our reporter by a prominent business man of this city (who we presume thought it would be a good joke on someone, we fail to see just who), to have the article appear in the paper. Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn have only been married a few months and have no children and naturally they regret the publication of the story. We also regret it, and can conceive of no reason why people who should know better, would take advantage of our reporter in a matter so delicate."

PHYSICIANS USE REESE FORMULA R-11 DAILY

Is Great Tonic, Rebuilds Nervous System, Purifies the Blood, Puts Snap In Your Step and Health in Your Eyes

Physicians every day prescribe for patients suffering from ailments of the stomach, liver and kidneys, such as indigestion, nervousness, headache, rheumatism, sour stomach, backache, lumbago, urinary, liver and kidney disorders, some of the drugs used in The Reese Formula R-11.

They are excellent drugs, but unless just the right ones are used in just the right combination and quantities, the best results are not obtained.

It took years of effort and study with Dr. Reese's own life at stake to perfect The Reese Formula R-11. It stands today in a class by itself.

It is sold on a positive guarantee. There are thousands in Mt. Sterling and nearby towns today who have suffered for years that owe their health to this great remedy. Get a bottle today at the Wm. S. Lloyd Drug Store, or your own druggist, and let us convince you of its merits. 73-26

Every now and then you hear a neighbor complain that "he doesn't seem to have much luck with tires."

Send him to us.

The minute a man begins to question the service his tires are giving him, he's ready to listen to reason.

Our business is built on the principle that the only way to get better tire service is to get better tires to start with.

That's why we have taken the representation for U. S. Tires.

U. S. Tires have a reputation for quality.

Built up through years of creating better tires. Such as the straight side automobile tire, the pneumatic truck tire

It is not by chance that U. S. Tires are made by the oldest and largest rubber concern in the world.

We are proud to represent U. S. Tires in this community.

Select your tires according to the roads they have to travel:

In sandy or hilly country, wherever the going is apt to be heavy—The U. S. Nobby.

For ordinary country roads—The U. S. Chain or Usco.

For front wheels—The U. S. Plain.

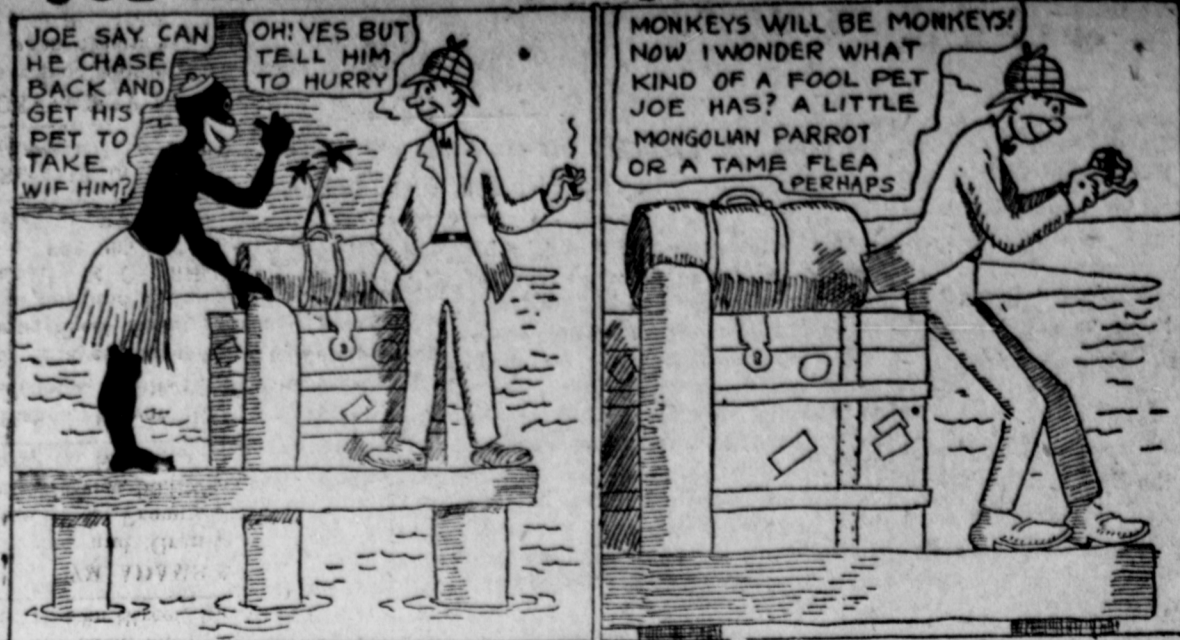

For best results—everywhere—U. S. Royal Cords.
